About Bells of the Sound

Bells of the Sound has been pioneering handbell artistry and excellence in the Puget Sound area since 1989. This talented group of auditioned musicians is renowned in the handbell world for advancing handbells into mainstream entertainment and encouraging composers to create new works for this intriguing instrument.

Established to give handbell directors an opportunity to ring, Bells of the Sound has matured into a community ensemble dedicated to musical excellence and exciting performance. The group owns and performs on one of the largest sets in the United States, which includes over seven octaves of Malmark handbells, six octaves of Malmark Choirchimes, two octaves of Schulmerich Silver Melody Bells, and over four octaves of Petit & Fritsen handbells. Their four released CDs demonstrate the range of the group and the instrument and feature not only arrangements of well-known tunes, but many original handbell compositions written for contests the group has hosted over the past 15 years.

Bells of the Sound has been the headlining act for several national conferences of Handbell Musicians of America and appeared locally on the Q13 Morning News Christmas Special, MIX 92.5's Christmas Show, KING 98.1's Evenings with Gigi Yellen and Northwest Focus Live. Past performances also include: the Opening Gala at Benaroya Hall; concerts with the Seattle Men's Chorus, the Rainier Chorale, Seattle Choral Company, and Choir of the Sound; and Mateo Messina's Symphony of the Superhero and The Pageant. Bells of the Sound is also proud to be a member of the Seattle Handbell Orchestra - a unique massed performing ensemble - along with Emerald City Ringers and Rainier Ringers.
